Michigan Public Service Commission to Conduct Consumer Forum in Ann Arbor

The Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) invites you to attend a consumer forum on important issues related to the electric, natural gas and telephone industries. At the forum, you will be able to get the latest information on electric and natural gas rates for the winter, and learn the current status of local and long distance telephone service. Attendees will also be able to ask questions and express their concerns regarding service quality or other utility issues.

The Consumer Forum scheduled for your area is:

~ Ann Arbor ~

Monday, October 13, 6:00 p.m.
Forsythe Middle School – Auditorium
1655 Newport Road

"The decisions we make regarding energy affects our pocketbooks and our quality of living. This Consumer forum is to help residents get engaged about the choices we can make regarding energy efficiency and other measures as we prepare for winter heating bills." said Commissioner Monica Martinez. "My colleagues and I welcome the opportunity to meet customers to discuss these issues and hear their comments and concerns on utility matters that concern them."
